

MY LORD AND MY GOD

VOL. XXII Issue. XVI

PHILIP

SECOND
SUNDAY
OF EASTER

April 24th, 2022

WELCOME to Epiphany

A painting of hands, likely representing the Epiphany, with a small red mark on one hand. The hands are rendered in warm, golden-brown tones, with a small red mark on the palm of the hand on the left. The background is dark, and there are blue elements on the left and right sides.

A Sonnet for St. Thomas the Apostle

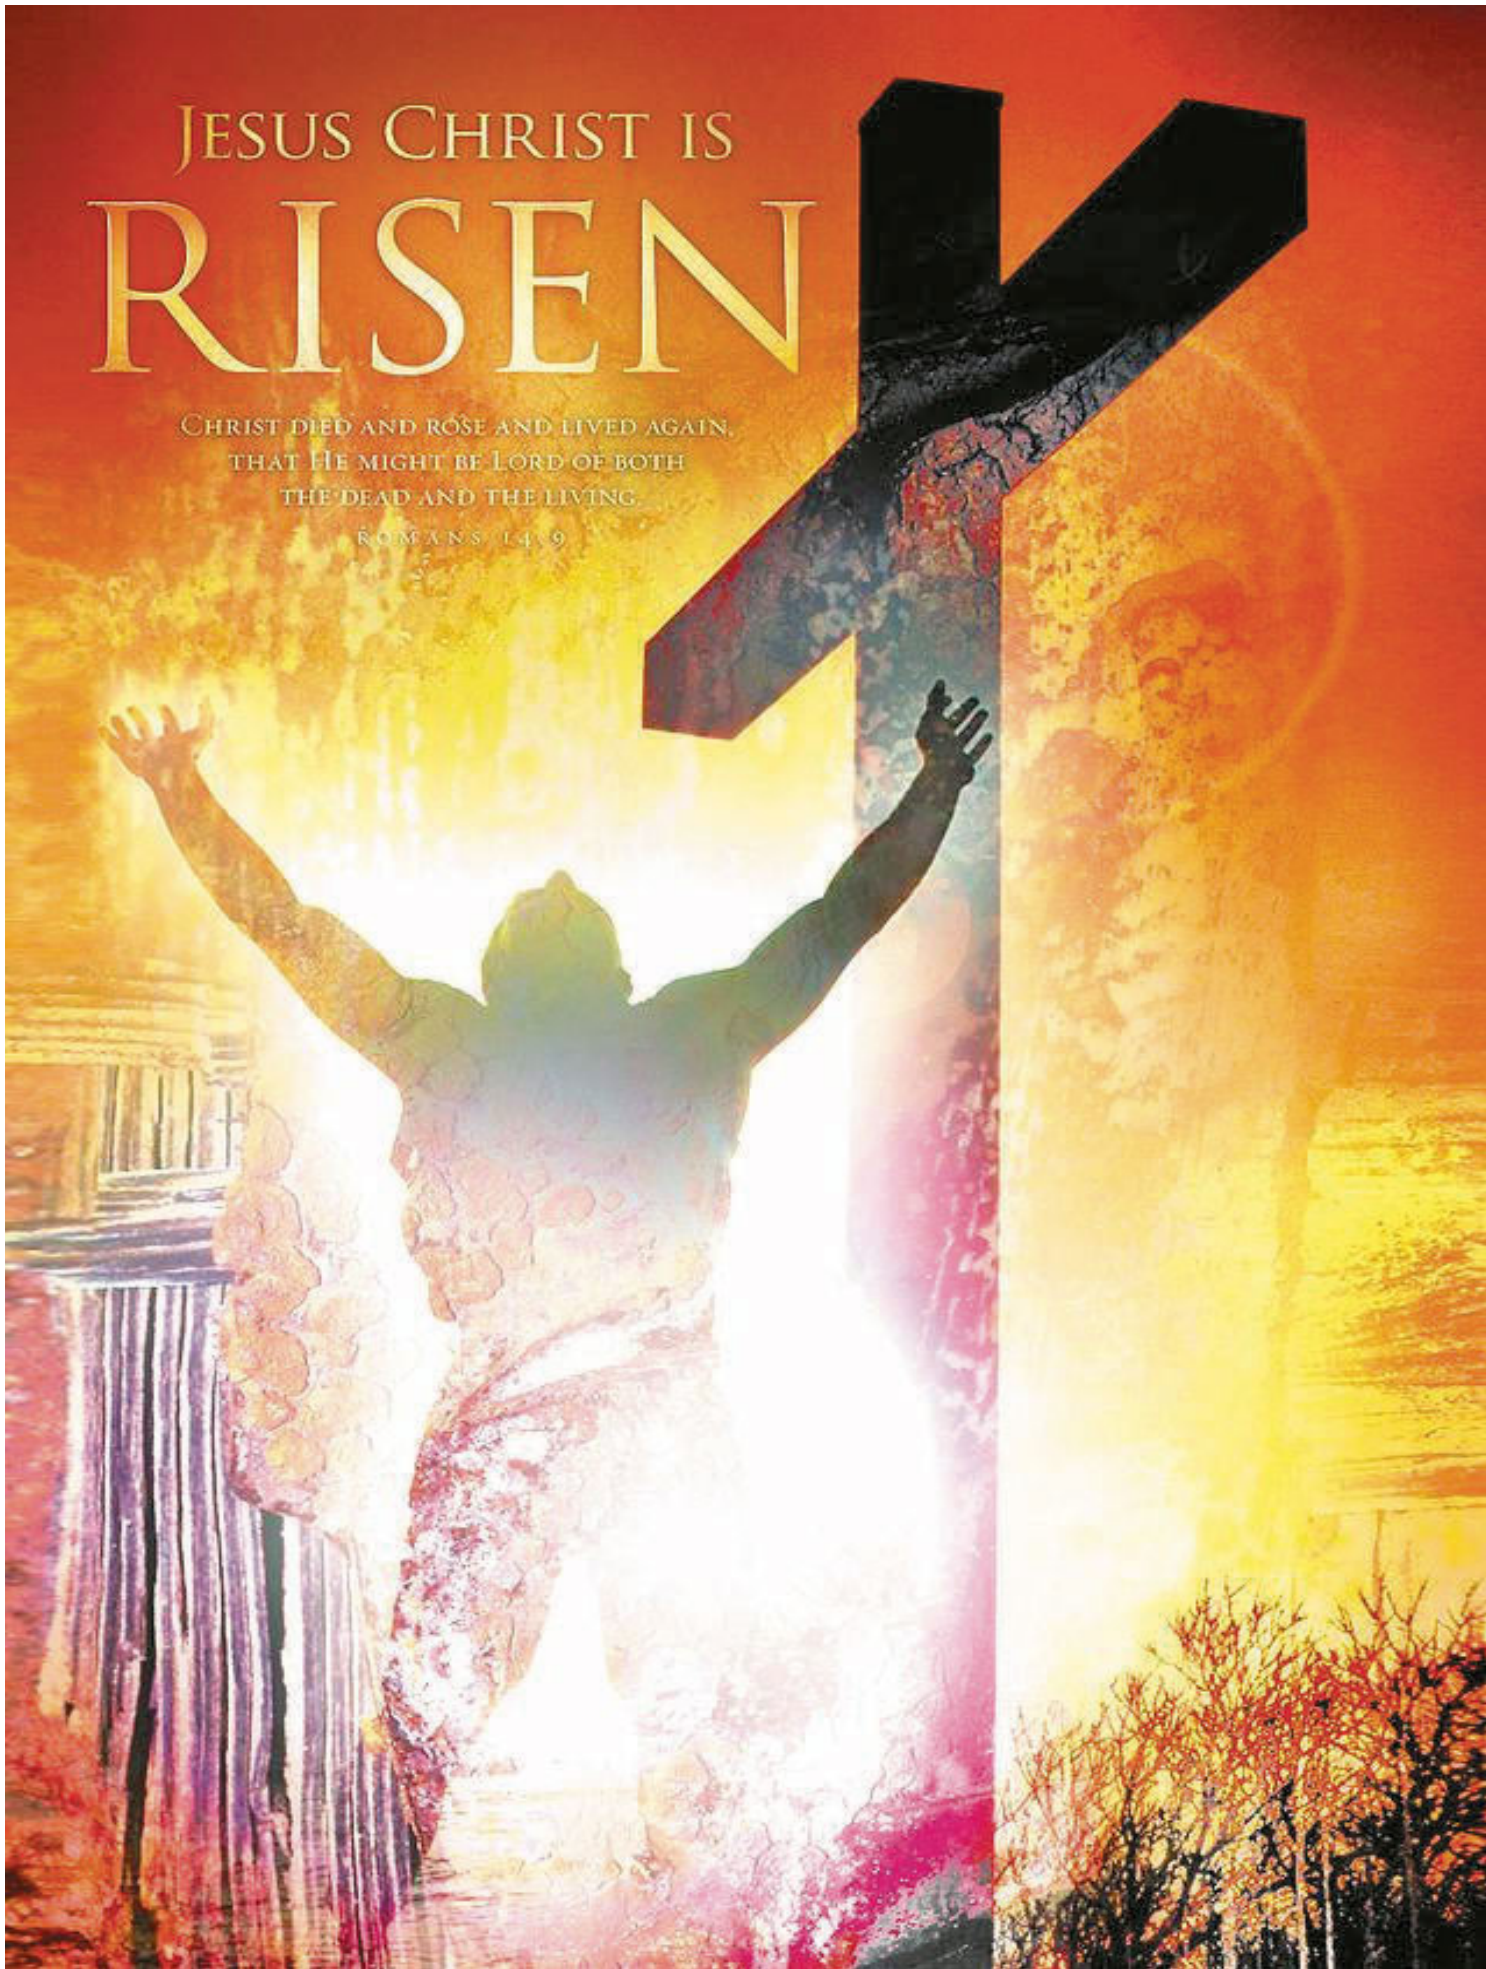

By Malcolm Guite

*We do not know... how can we know the way?"
Courageous master of the awkward question,
You spoke the words the others dared not say
And cut through their evasion and abstraction.
Oh doubting Thomas, father of my faith,
You put your finger on the nub of things
We cannot love some disembodied wraith,
But flesh and blood must be our king of kings.
Your teaching is to touch, embrace, anoint,
Feel after Him and find Him in the flesh.
Because He loved your awkward counter-point
The Word has heard and granted you your wish.
Oh place my hands with yours, help me divine
The wounded God whose wounds are healing mine.*

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN

CHRIST DIED AND ROSE AND LIVED AGAIN,
THAT HE MIGHT BE LORD OF BOTH
THE DEAD AND THE LIVING.
