"This is my beloved Son.
Listen to him."

Second Sunday
of Lent

transfiguration

WELCOME to Epiphany

“and Spirit
streaming through every cell of flesh
so that if
mortal sight
could bear to perceive it, it would be seen
His mortal
flesh was lit
from within,
now... and
aching for home.”

HIS FACE SHONE like the sun," Matthew says, "and his garments became white as light." Moses and Elijah were talking to him. There was a bright cloud overshadowing him and out of it a voice saying, "This is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The three disciples who witnessed the scene "fell on their faces, and were filled with awe" (Matthew 17:1-6).

It is as strange a scene as there is in the Gospels. Even without the voice from the cloud to explain it, they had no doubt what they were witnessing. It was Jesus of Nazareth all right, the man they'd tramped many a dusty mile with, whose mother and brothers they knew, the one they'd seen as hungry, tired, footsore as the rest of them. But it was also the Messiah, the Christ, in his glory. It was the holiness of the man shining through his humanness; his face so afire with it they were almost blinded.

Easter Novena of Masses

Beginning on Easter and continuing through Ascension Thursday, every Mass will include a special prayer for the special intentions listed on our Easter Novena envelopes, which are on the table at the back of the church.

Please complete the envelope and place it in the collection basket or give it to a minister or priest.

2024 Cardinal's Appeal

The 2024 Cardinal's Appeal has begun! "Blessed are all who take refuge in Him!" In our Archdiocese, 2.8 million Catholics & countless others take refuge in the Lord through his Church & her ministries. The Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal guides people in need to an encounter with Jesus. As always, we appreciate our generous parishioners.

If your 2023 Tax Deductions exceed $13,850 (single), $27,700 (married), or $20,800 for heads of household, and they include church donations, you must obtain a report from Epiphany before filing your 2023 tax return. To take any of these deductions, please call the parish office to request a statement of donations.
