"Zeal for your house will consume me!"

Third Sunday
Of Lent

WELCOME to Epiphany

JESUS and the moneychangers

On this third Sunday of Lent, we see that cleaning was on Jesus's mind. It was time for the annual Passover celebration, so Jesus traveled to Jerusalem like he probably did every year as a good Jew. And when he arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus went straight to the temple where he saw the buying and selling going on. That caused the spirit of disruption to begin coursing through his veins. Jesus's mission all along was to disrupt the religious system and structure and show the world that he was the new dwelling place of God. And so this Incarnate Word walked in with a whip of cords, all Indiana Jones style, ready to administer some disruptive justice. As we travel through Lent, the disruptive Jesus will enter our own personal temples to help us clean our house. He never promised that following him would be safe!

Easter Novena of Masses

Beginning on Easter and continuing through Ascension Thursday, every Mass will include a special prayer for the special intentions listed on our Easter Novena envelopes, which are on the table at the back of the church.

Please complete the envelope and place it in the collection basket or give it to a minister or priest.

Catholic Relief Services

2nd Collection – March 9-10

This collection helps us to reveal the love of Christ to our brothers & sisters most in need. It will enable CRS to provide for the hungry, aid displaced refugees, and assist struggling communities here and abroad.

If your 2023 Tax Deductions exceed $13,850 (single), $27,700 (married), or $20,800 for heads of household, and they include church donations, you must obtain a report from Epiphany before filing your 2023 tax return.

To take any of these deductions, please call the parish office to request a statement of donations.
