THE SECOND
SUNDAY OF LENT
EPIPHANY

March 13th, 2022

WELCOME to Epiphany

His face SHONE like the

SUN

HIS FACE SHONE like the sun," Matthew says, and Luke adds "his clothing became dazzling white." Moses and Elijah were talking to him. There was a bright cloud overshadowing him and out of it a voice saying, "This is my chosen son; listen to him." The three disciples who witnessed the scene "saw his glory; became frightened; fell on their faces".

It is as strange a scene as there is in the Gospels. Even without the voice from the cloud to explain it, they had no doubt what they were witnessing. It was Jesus of Nazareth all right, the man they'd tramped many a dusty mile with, whose mother and brothers they knew, the one they'd seen as hungry, tired, footsore as the rest of them. But it was also the Messiah, the Christ, in his glory. It was the holiness of the man shining through his humanness, his face so afire with it they were almost blinded.

Even with us something like that happens once in a while. The face of a man walking his child in the park, of a woman picking peas in the garden, of sometimes even the unlikeliest person listening to a concert, say, or standing barefoot in the sand watching the waves roll in, or just having a beer at a Saturday baseball game in July. Every once and so often, something so touching, so incandescent, so alive transfigures the human face that it's almost beyond bearing.

As Catholics, we are called to:

- ~uphold life and dignity of each human person
- ~support families and future generations
- ~love the poor and vulnerable
- ~advocate for basic rights and a just economy
- ~be in solidarity with all, as one human family
- ~care for all God's creation

Grounded in our Catholic Tradition, now is the time to protect the earth for our children and grandchildren.

The Church of the Epiphany stands with Pope Francis, and pledges to do all we can to care for our common home, and one another.

COVID PROCEDURES AT EPIPHANY

The Archdiocese of New York has informed us that mask requirements in church are lifted for everyone; those who wish to continue to wear a mask may do so at their discretion. At this time we are instructed to refrain from offering the Precious Blood, and to offer the Body of Christ in the hand only. Thank you for your understanding as we continue to keep everyone safe from the Corona virus.
