"THE NEW JERUSALEM"

THE SIXTH
SUNDAY
OF EASTER

WELCOME to Epiphany

There is a beautiful visionary scene at the end of the book of Revelation that is as relevant today as it was in the first century. It doesn't picture us being evacuated from earth to heaven as many assume. It pictures a New Jerusalem descending from heaven to earth. This city doesn't need a temple because God's presence is felt everywhere. It doesn't need a sun or a moon because the light of Christ illuminates it from within. Its gates are never shut, and it welcomes people from around the world to receive the treasures it offers and bring the treasures they can offer. From the center of the city, from God's own throne, a river flows--a river of life, or aliveness. Along its banks grows the Tree of Life. All of this, of course, evokes the original creation story and echoes God's own words in Revelation: "Behold, I make all things new!"

It was a blueprint for the future. It told them that the story of God's work in history has never been about escaping Earth and going up to heaven. It has always been about God's descending to dwell among us, making the tree of true aliveness available for all.

What was true for Revelation's original audience is true for us today. Whatever madman is in power, whatever chaos is breaking out, whatever danger threatens, the river of life is flowing now. The Tree of Life is bearing fruit now. True aliveness is available now. That's why Revelation ends with the sound of a single word echoing through the universe. Not "wait", or "someday", but "Come!". To everyone who is willing, "Come!"
